ABOUT THE DATA

This publication provides a summary of Alberta's international trade statistics for 2010, with sections for exports by industry and exports by region. A profile is also included for each country that imported more than $20 million of goods from Alberta in 2010. Each profile provides a chart tracking Alberta's total exports to the country since 1995, Alberta's top 20 export products and Canada's top 10 export products in 2010. Alberta's exports by each U.S. state, including and excluding energy products, are also provided.

Because service exports are not currently available for provinces on a country-specific basis, in this report "exports" refers only to exports of goods, except in the introductory "Year in Review" section, which includes an estimate of Alberta's global services exports. Additionally, "exports" refers to "domestic exports"—those grown, extracted or manufactured in Canada—and does not include "re-exports"—goods imported into Canada and minimally processed but not substantially enhanced in value before being exported again.

Most of the trade statistics in this report are based on the international Harmonized System (HS), which is administered by the World Customs Organization and organizes all traded goods under a standardized, logically ordered, numeric coding system. This system is used by more than 190 countries and forms the basis for customs tariffs, relevant WTO or bilateral free trade negotiations and international trade statistics. The HS system is used in this report to quantify product-specific exports. Sector and industry-based export statistics in this report, though, are based on the North American Industry Classification System (NAICS), which was adopted by Canada, the United States and Mexico in 1997 to provide common definitions of the industrial structure of the three countries and a common statistical framework to facilitate the analysis of the three economies. Because of technical differences in how trade statistics are tracked with the HS and NAICS systems there may be small differences in reported exports depending on the system used.

Export data in the country profile tables is presented at the HS 6-digit level. Product descriptions have been shortened to fit the space available. Full product descriptions can be found in Statistics Canada's "The Canadian Export Classification 2010" at: http://www.statcan.ca/english/tradedata/cec/index.htm.

Statistics Canada is the main source of information on goods trade for this publication. Estimates for service exports are developed by Alberta Treasury Board and Enterprise based on special surveys conducted by Statistics Canada. Information on GDP growth and forecasts come from the International Monetary Fund World Economic Outlook (April 2011), unless otherwise noted.

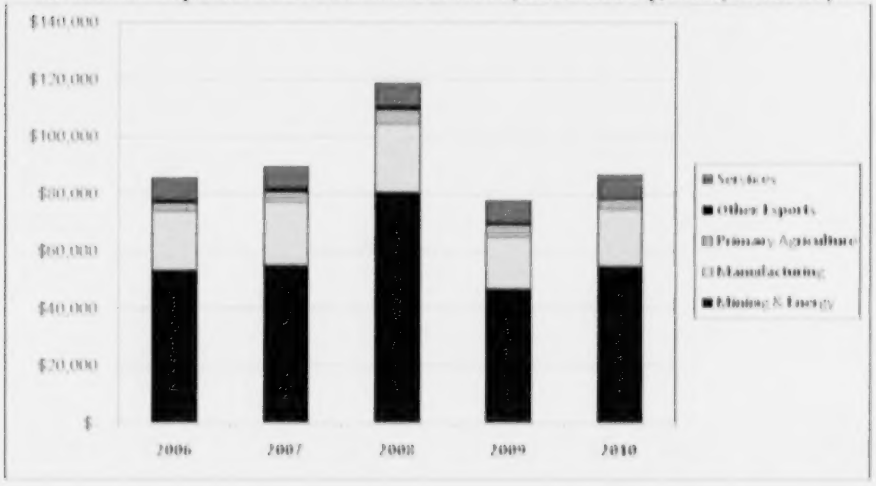
The Year in Review

In terms of international trade, 2010 signified a return to growth after the global economic recession. Global trade increased as consumer demand increased and as commodity prices, which had declined significantly in the second half of 2008, rose through 2009 and 2010. However, 2008 is likely to remain as the high water mark for Alberta's exports, in the near term.

In 2010, Alberta exported a total of $86.8 billion worth of goods and services, an increase of 12% from the previous year. Exports of merchandise goods from Alberta rose from $69.9 billion in 2009 to $78.6 billion in 2010, up 12%, while service exports increased from $7.9 billion to $8.2 billion, up 4.3%. Alberta's top export industries were mining and energy, manufacturing (particularly chemicals, food and beverages, and machinery) and primary agricultural products. Alberta goods were imported by 187 countries in 2010. The top five export markets (in order) were the United States (US), China, Japan, the European Union (EU) and Mexico.

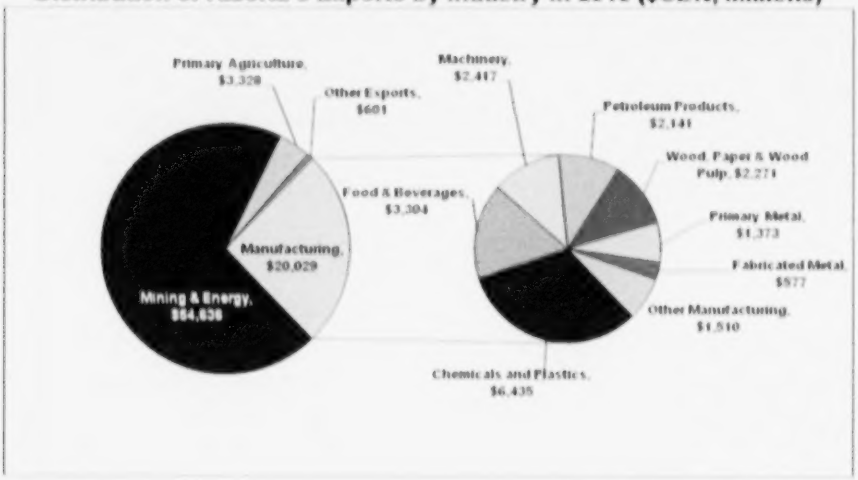
Alberta's Exports of Goods and Services, 2006-2010 ($CDN, Millions)



A summary of Alberta's exports by industry and global region follows.

Alberta Exports by Industry The value of Alberta's goods exports grew 12% from $69.9 billion in 2009 to $78.6 billion in 2010. The Mining and Energy sector accounted for 70% ($54.6 billion) of Alberta's total goods exports. Excluding energy and mining products, Alberta exported $24.0 billion of other goods, up 4.4% from the previous year.

Distribution of Alberta's Exports by Industry in 2010 ($CDN, Millions)



Mining and Energy exports totaled $54.6 billion in 2010. Exports from the sector were composed of mostly crude oil, worth $39.3 billion (70% of total energy exports), and natural gas ($14.1 billion, 25% of the total). Crude oil exports increased 26% from $31.1 billion in 2009, while natural gas exports decreased 4.9% from $14.8 billion during the same time period. The value of crude oil and natural gas exports combined increased 16% from $45.9 billion in 2009 to $53.4 billion in 2010.

Manufacturing was Alberta's second largest export sector in 2010. Manufactured exports accounted for a total of $20.0 billion, up 12% from the previous year. Within the manufacturing sector, chemical exports increased 16% to $6.4 billion in 2010, up from $5.5 billion in 2009. Food and beverage exports grew 8.5% from $3.0 billion in 2009 to $3.2 billion in 2010. Machinery exports decreased from $2.8 billion in 2009 to $2.4 billion in 2010, down 15%. Petroleum and coal product exports increased 68%, from $1.3 billion in 2009 to $2.1 billion in 2010. Woodpulp and paper exports grew 21% from $1.3 billion in 2009 to $1.6 billion in 2010. Exports of primary metals rose from $1.1 billion to $1.3 billion, at a rate of 27% from 2009 to 2010.

Primary agriculture exports decreased from $4.3 billion to $3.3 billion in 2010, at a rate of 22%. Livestock exports grew 10% to $642.7 million. Crop exports shrank 28% to $3.3 billion in 2010. The decline in crop export values can be attributed to a combination of lower prices and smaller shipments throughout 2010.

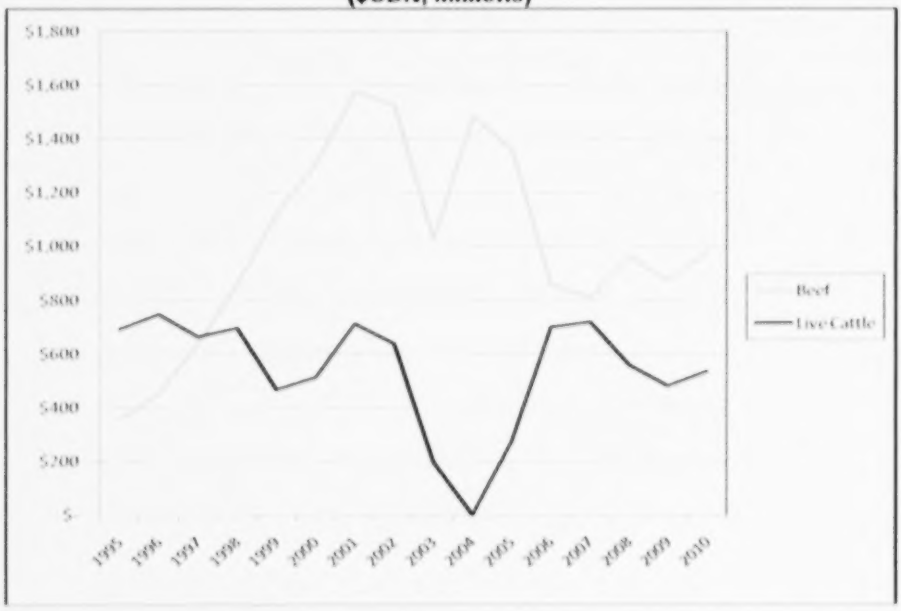
Crop exports were heavily influenced by the performance of wheat and canola seed, which made up approximately 90% of total crop exports. Alberta's exports of wheat decreased 33% to $1.4 billion in 2010, while canola seed exports declined by 18% to $996.2 million over the same time period. Low prices relative to 2009 negatively influenced these products and the volume of shipments and prices for both products decreased. The volume of wheat exports decreased 21% and its average export price declined 16%. Canola seed exports fared similarly. The quantity of canola seed exports decreased 19% and was the greatest factor in its performance.

Canola oil and oil cake exports increased from $691.0 million to $919.7 million in 2010, or 33% growth from 2009 to 2010. Export prices increased rapidly, resulting in a net gain in the value of canola oil and oil cake exports.

Processed meat exports increased 8.1% in 2010 to $1.5 billion. Livestock exports also expanded with the value of exports growing 10% to $642.7 million. Beef and cattle remain the largest respective components of these two export categories. Frozen or fresh beef was worth $979.8 million in total, up 12% from 2009 to 2010, while live cattle exports grew 11% to $535.0 million. The chart below illustrates the long-term trend of these two industries since 1995.

Alberta's Exports of Live Cattle and Fresh and Frozen Beef 1995-2010 ($CDN, Millions)



In 2010 exports of fresh or frozen pork grew 8.1% to $377.3 million while the value of live swine shrank 4.0% to $40.2 million. Exports of live swine were greatly affected by a decrease in demand due to the inaccurate linking of live swine with the H1N1 influenza outbreak in 2009. The export price and volume for live swine both grew from 2009 to 2010.

Mining and Energy

Mining and Energy exports increased 16% to $54.6 billion in 2010, up from $47.0 billion in 2009. Mining exports were diversified in their destination markets in 2010 while 98% of energy exports were destined for the US.

Crude oil exports grew 26% from 2009 to $39.3 billion in 2010. The average prices of crude oil grew 19% over the same time period. Exports of natural gas declined 4.9%, from $14.8 billion in 2009 to $14.1 billion in 2010. The following table shows price, volume and value data for Alberta's exports of crude oil and natural gas exports in 2009 and 2010.

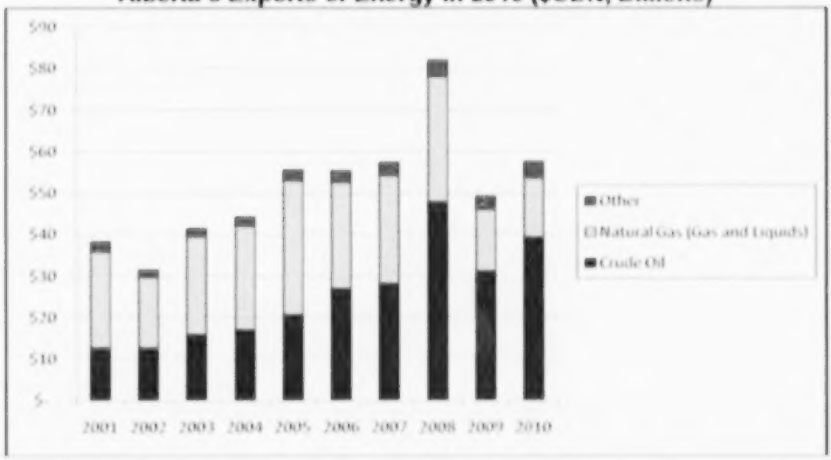
Alberta's Exports of Energy in 2010 ($CDN, Billions)



Coal exports grew 1.5% in value from 2009 to 2010 (reaching $716.2 million). In 2010, Japan was the largest market for Alberta's coal products and absorbed $218.8 million of the total, down 35% from 2009. The second largest market for Alberta's coal in 2010 was the U.S. at $197.1 million. China ranked third at $163.8 million.

Exports of Alberta's sulfur grew 57% to $452.0 billion in 2010 from $287.2 million in 2009. Sulphur, which is a byproduct of oil and natural gas industries, had benefited from a large increase in average prices in 2010. China ($178.0 million), the United States ($123.5 million) and Australia ($64.2 million) were the most significant export markets for sulphur.

Manufacturing

Alberta's Manufacturing exports increased 12% in value, to $20.0 billion in 2010. The Manufacturing sector made up 84% of Alberta's non-energy goods exports. Chemical manufacturing was the largest subsector of manufacturing and accounted for $6.4 billion of all manufacturing in 2010. Food and beverage manufacturing followed at $3.3 billion, up 8.5% from 2009. Machinery exports ranked as Alberta's third largest manufacturing subsector at $2.4 billion in 2010, down 15% from $2.8 billion in 2009.

Some manufacturing subsectors emerged from the global economic recession unscathed, with growth rates greater than 20%. Petroleum and coal products, paper and wood pulp, primary metals, and wood products were the fastest growing manufactured exports in 2010. Other manufacturing subsector exports did not fare as well. Fabricated metal products decreased 9.5%. Exports of computer and electronic products decreased 1.3%. Furniture exports declined 16% also.

Plastic exports from Alberta to the world totaled $3.1 billion in 2010, up from $2.8 billion in 2009. The U.S. consumed $2.8 billion of Alberta's plastic exports in 2009, which grew 19% in 2010 to $3.1 billion. China followed the U.S. as the second largest importer of Alberta's plastics. Plastic exports to China decreased 48%, from $234.6 million in 2009 to $120.9 million in 2010. Exports to Mexico, the third largest market for Alberta's plastics, grew 2.4% to $119.8 million during the same time period.

Organic chemicals ranked as Alberta's second largest chemical and plastics export in 2010. Organic chemicals accounted for $2.0 billion worth of exports, up 37% from $1.5 billion in 2009. Exports of organic chemicals to the US, the largest market for Alberta's chemicals, expanded 51% from 2009 to 2010, from $980.9 million to $1.5 billion. China absorbed $429.2 million in 2010, up 27% from $429.2 million in 2009. Within the organic chemicals category, exports of ethylene glycol (antifreeze) accounted for $1.1 billion of the total in 2010, up from $759.9 million. The largest market for ethylene glycol in 2010 was the U.S. at $615.6 million, followed by China at $426.2 million. Other significant exports included styrene ($386.4 million) and acyclic hydrocarbons ($337.2 million). Both export products were destined almost entirely to the U.S.

Alberta's exports of fertilizers, such as urea and ammonium nitrate, were worth $680.3 million in 2010, down 3.5% from $601.5 million in 2009. Exports of fertilizers were mostly destined for the U.S., which absorbed 98% of the total ($569.5 million).

Inorganic chemical exports grew 20% from $ 363.4 million to $435.5 million in 2010. Ammonia accounted for the bulk of inorganic exports in 2010 at $357.1 million, up from $306.4 million. The U.S. was the most significant export destination of inorganic chemicals, at 90%.

The destinations for Alberta's machinery exports were diversified in 2010. While the U.S. absorbed 59% of all machinery exports from Alberta, there were significant exports to Russia (5.8%), South Korea (3.4%), and Australia (3.3%). Overall, machinery exports worth $2 million or more were sent to 58 countries in 2010, down from 64 countries in 2009. It should also be noted that Mexico, which had absorbed 8.6% of Alberta's machinery exports in 2009, absorbed only 1.1% in 2010. In 2009, Mexico ranked as Alberta's second largest destination for machinery exports, while in 2010 it ranked eleventh.

Products in these industries can be divided into three categories; computers, electrical machinery, and precision instruments. Exports of Alberta's computers and computer components grew 93% from $30.2 million in 2009 to $58.1 million in 2010. Electrical machinery exports increased from $429.4 million to $433.4 million, growing approximately 1.0% from 2009 to 2010. Radar and radio-navigation equipment made up the largest portion of this category in 2010 at $68.6 million. This was followed by exports of telephone equipment at $50.3 million and exports of boards and panels with more than two apparatus at $42.1 million.

Alberta's precision instrument exports shrank 4.6% from 2009 to 2010, from $377.0 million to $359.5 million. Instruments for physical analysis were the largest precision instrument exports at $101.7 million in 2010, up from $86.1 million in 2009. Surveying and geophysical equipment ranked second at $56.3 million in 2010, down 26% from the previous year. Exports of instruments for measuring and checking flow decreased 4.6% to $54.9 million in 2010.

The U.S. was the largest destination for Alberta's computers, electrical machinery and precision instruments in 2009. For both electrical machinery and precision instruments the U.S. was the largest market in 2010. Electrical machinery exports to the U.S. rose from $225.4 million in 2009 to $239.0 million in 2010. Exports of precision instruments to the U.S. grew 1.5% from $199.7 million to $202.7 million, while computer and component exports to the U.S. were worth $48.0 million in 2010.

The United Kingdom (UK) consumed $24.4 million worth of Alberta's precision instrument exports in 2010, up 16% from 2009. In 2009 electrical machinery exports to the UK were worth $8.0 million.

Alberta Exports by Region

It should be no surprise that North American Free Trade Agreement (NAFTA) countries continued to be Alberta's largest export market in 2010 ($69.0 billion.) The United States consumed $68.2 billion of Alberta's exports, with energy the dominant export product. Overall, energy exports accounted for $55.5 billion to the US, approximately 81% of total exports. Alberta's exports in the Asia-Pacific region decreased from $6.5 billion in 2009 to $6.4 billion in 2010. Exports to Europe grew 16% in 2010 to $1.6 billion, approximately 2.1% of Alberta's total exports. Following is a report on Alberta's exports by region with key countries for each region highlighted. Please see the Market profiles in the Appendix for detailed export statistics on individual countries.

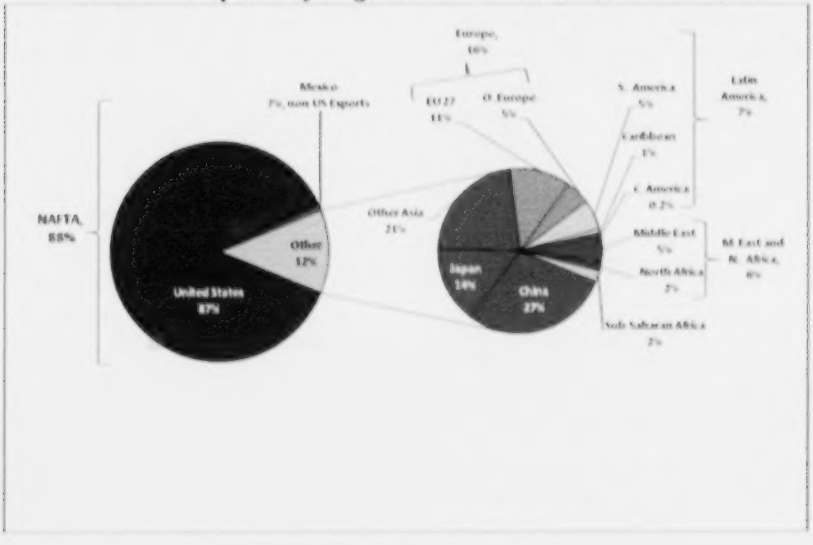
Alberta's Exports by Region in 2010: Total = $78.6 Billion



North America

North America is Alberta's largest trade region and accounted for 88% of total Alberta exports in 2010. Merchandise exports to NAFTA partners were valued at $69.0 billion, up 15% from 2009. 99% of Alberta's North American exports were destined for the US.

Energy products accounted for 80% of Alberta's exports to North America ($55.5 billion). Crude oil made up 71% ($39.1 billion, up 27% from 2009) of energy exports in 2010 while natural gas accounted for 32% ($14.5 billion, down 3.7%). Calcined petroleum coke, light oils and coal made up the remainder. Most of Alberta's energy exports to NAFTA countries were destined for the US.

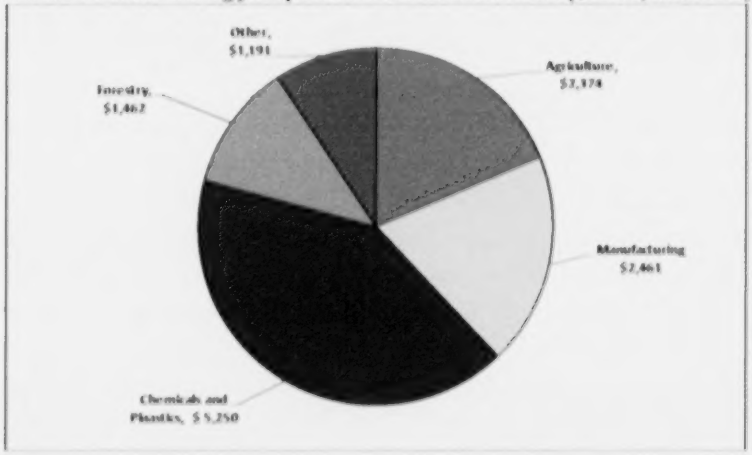
United States

The U.S. was Alberta's single largest trading partner in 2010 at $68.2 billion (87% of Alberta's total exports). With exports oriented heavily to that market, Alberta is particularly susceptible to U.S. economic performance relative to that of other countries. The U.S. economy grew 3.0% in 2010 and is expected to slow by 1.5% in 2011 and by 1.8% in 2012.[1]

Energy was the largest export sector to the U.S. in 2010. Exports of energy increased 18% in 2010, from $47.1 billion to $55.5 billion. Higher prices and larger export volumes contributed to the growth of energy exports from 2009 to 2010. See the Mining and Energy Sector section for tables and charts illustrating volume and pricing trends. Overall, the quantity of crude oil exports, the largest export product to the US, grew 6.7% from 2009 to 2010, while the price of crude oil increased 19%. The value of crude oil exports to the U.S. rose from $30.1 billion in 2009 to $39.1 billion in 2010, a 27% increase. Natural gas was Alberta's second largest export to the US, despite shrinking 5.8% from $13.5 billion in 2009 to $12.7 billion in 2010. Liquefied propane exports grew 13%, from $1.1 billion to $1.2 billion during the same time period. Energy prices have recovered somewhat since the end of 2009. While it is unlikely that price levels similar to those in 2008 will be seen for some time, the price for crude oil are expected to increase in 2011.

Alberta's non-energy exports to the U.S. grew from $11.8 billion in 2009 to $12.7 billion in 2010. A breakdown of these exports, by sector, is provided in the following chart. Note that these categories will be different than those used in the previous section.

Alberta's Non-Energy Exports to the U.S. in 2010 ($CDN, Millions)



[1] International Monetary Fund (IMF), World Economic Outlook 2011

Agricultural exports decreased 10% from $2.6 billion in 2009 to $2.4 billion in 2010. Alberta's exports of meat products to the U.S increased 3.1% to $795.4 million and were the largest exports from the agricultural sector. Beef comprised the bulk of meat exports at $666.3 million, an increase of 4.5% from 2009. Live animal exports rose 11% from $526.3 million to $583.5 million. Cattle were the largest component of live animal exports in 2010, at $534.9 million, up from $480.7 million in 2009. Exports of cereals (such as wheat, barley and oats) decreased for the second consecutive year, from $334.1 million to $185.4 million in 2010. This was caused by lower prices for cereals as well as a smaller quantity shipped. Exports of fats and oil (primarily canola oil) from Alberta decreased 7.9% to $157.8 million in 2010.

Chemicals and plastics continued to be Alberta's largest non-energy export to the US. These exports grew 24% in 2010, from $4.2 billion in 2009 to $5.3 billion. Alberta's exports of plastics to the U.S. were worth $2.2 billion in 2009 and rose 19% to $2.6 billion in 2010. Organic chemicals and fertilizers were important chemical exports to the U.S. and were worth $1.5 billion (an increase of 51%) and $569.5 million (up 1.2%) in 2010 respectively.

Alberta's manufacturing exports products grew 0.8%, from $2.4 billion in 2009 to $2.5 billion in 2010. Machinery exports were worth $1.7 billion in 2010, up 0.2% from the previous year. Alberta's exports of precision instruments grew from $199.8 million in 2009 to $202.7 million in 2010. Exports of electrical machinery grew 6.0%, from $225.4 million in 2009 to $239.0 million. Exports of vehicles to the U.S. decreased during this period to $96.1 million.

Exports from Alberta's forestry sector expanded 25%, from $1.2 billion in 2009 to $1.5 billion in 2010. Exports of wood and lumber from 2009 to 2010 grew 24% from $443.4 million to $552.4 million. Woodpulp and paper exports were worth $733.2 million (up 28%) and $166.8 million (up 30%) respectively in 2010. Forestry exports to the U.S. are expected to be lower in 2011 than in 2010 due to increasing uncertainty over another recession in the US.

Alberta's other exports declined 11%, from $1.3 billion in 2009, to $1.2 billion in 2010. Iron and steel products remained the largest proportion of Alberta's other exports to the US, despite a 12% decrease in value to $349.8 million. Unwrought iron and steel exports grew 49% to $126.8 million. Salt, sulfur and stone exports (primarily sulfur), the third largest export sector in the category, grew 77% in value from 2009 to 2010, from $85.5 million to $151.6 million.

Commodity prices played a large role in determining Alberta's export performance in 2010. However, the U.S. economy remains volatile and could lapse into another recession, which could impact the prices for Alberta's commodities in that market.

It is difficult to identify the final destination for Alberta's exports to the U.S., since goods are frequently shipped on to new locations following their recorded arrival in the U.S. Oil and natural gas are particularly difficult since those goods are moved via pipeline, making it difficult to track the final destination. However, the available data can be used to identify which states are the largest in terms of point of first access. U.S. Midwest states were the major markets for Alberta oil and natural gas products in 2010.

Excluding oil and natural gas exports (and excluding the U.S. as a whole), Texas was Alberta's second largest global export market after China, at $1.8 billion in 2010. California ranked as Alberta's fourth largest market for non-energy exports after Japan, followed by Illinois, Washington State and Mexico.

Alberta's exports (excluding oil and gas) to Texas, the largest market in the United States, grew 5.7% to $1.8 billion in 2010, up from $1.7 billion in 2009. Machinery, mostly oil and natural gas equipment and parts, was the largest export product to Texas from Alberta and accounted for $633.5 million, down 5.3% from 2009 levels. Organic chemical exports grew 134% to $345.8 million from 2009 to 2010. Plastic exports ranked as Alberta's third largest non-energy export to Texas at $297.4 million in 2010, up 2.2% from the previous year.

Non-energy exports to California decreased from $1.1 billion in 2009 to $915.5 million in 2010. Alberta's largest exports to California were meat ($271.2 million, up 21%), plastics ($156.9 million, down 0.6%), and machinery ($63.2 million, down 17%). Prices were the biggest factor in the variability of the performance of these goods.

Illinois was Alberta's third largest U.S. market for non-energy exports and accounted for $800.7 million in 2010, up 22% from 2009. Organic chemicals were the largest non-energy export at $318.1 million in 2010, growing 51% over the previous year. Plastics were the next largest export product to Illinois in 2010 at $193.2 million, an increase of 11% over 2010. Meat exports rose 7.9% to $51.7 million in 2010.

Alberta's exports to Washington State, the fourth largest non-energy U.S. market, grew 1.6% from $784.7 million in 2009 to $797.1 million in 2010. Live animals (mostly cattle) were the largest exports to Washington in 2010. Exports of live cattle grew 1.5%, from $335.4 million to $340.3 million. Exports of inorganic chemicals (primarily ammonia) to Washington grew from $56.0 million to $62.5 million during the same time period. Woodpulp, the third largest export product from Alberta to Washington, rose 22% to $55.2 million in 2010.

Mexico

Mexico's economy grew 5.5% in 2010, and is expected to grow in the near future, by 4.6% in 2011, and 4.0% in 2012. However, similar to Canada, Mexico is heavily reliant on the U.S. as a market for goods and a second recession in the U.S. could impact economic growth.

Alberta's exports to Mexico declined 24% from $977.3 million in 2009 to $743.8 million in 2010. Canola seed was the largest export from Alberta to Mexico and totaled $192.9 million, up 17% from $165.2 million in 2009. Alberta's exports of beef grew 13% from $117.5 million to $132.8 million. Ethylene polymers, Alberta's third largest export to Mexico in 2010, rose 4.0% to $118.9 million. Exports of boring or sinking machinery parts, the largest export product from Alberta in 2009, decreased 92%, from $199.4 million in 2009, to $16.5 million in 2010.

Asia-Pacific

The Asia-Pacific region was the next largest regional market for Alberta goods after North America. Exports to the region grew in 2010 owing to a strong fiscal and monetary response by these countries to the economic crisis.[2] That growth is expected to continue; however, some uncertainty remains in the global marketplace.

[3] International Monetary Fund (IMF), World Economic Outlook 2011

Canada has been pursuing free trade negotiations in the region, notably the Canada-South Korea Free Trade Agreement (FTA) and a Canada-Singapore FTA, though these negotiations seem to have stalled. Negotiations were started with India on a Comprehensive Economic Partnership Agreement (CEPA) in November 2010 and are currently on their second round. Canada and Japan are considering launching negotiations of a CEPA pending the results of a joint study undertaken by the two countries.

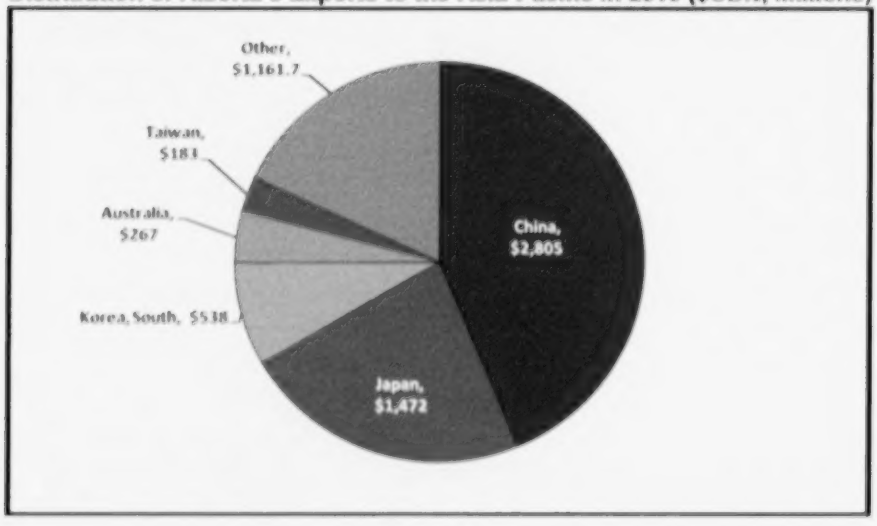
Canada has concluded or is negotiating Foreign Investment Promotion Agreements (FIPA's) with various countries in the region, including China, India, Indonesia and Vietnam. Canada has also expressed interest in joining the Trans-Pacific Partnership, a regional free trade area comprised of Brunei, Chile, New Zealand, and Singapore, with Australia, Peru, the U.S. and Vietnam negotiating entry.

Exports from Alberta to the Asia-Pacific region decreased 16%, from $6.6 billion in 2009 to $6.4 billion in 2010. Alberta was the second largest provincial exporter to the region. British Columbia's exports to the region grew 32%, from $9.2 billion in 2009 to $12.1 billion. Canadian exports to the Asia-Pacific region grew 13% to $38.1 billion in the same time period.

China was the largest market for Alberta exports in the Asia-Pacific region during 2010 and absorbed $2.8 billion worth of goods (44% of total exports to the region), up 11% from 2009. Exports to Japan decreased 7.1% from $1.6 billion to $1.5 billion in 2010. South Korea was the third largest market in the region in 2010, at $537.7 million, up 0.9% from 2009.

Top exports to the Asia-Pacific region included canola oil ($645.9 million), canola seeds ($609.1 million) and chemical woodpulp ($509.1 million). China and Korea were the biggest regional consumers of canola oil at $622.5 million and $15.8 million. Canola seed exports were predominantly destined for Japan ($287.1 million) and China ($200.7 million). China and Japan were the largest consumers of chemical woodpulp at $199.8 million and $138.2 million respectively.

Distribution of Alberta's Exports to the Asia-Pacific in 2010 ($CDN, Millions)



China

China's economy grew at a rapid pace in 2010, by 10.3%, according to the IMF. From 2006 to 2010, the average growth rate of China's economy was above 11%, and it is expected to continue to grow by 9.6% and 9.5% in 2011 and 2012 respectively. China recovered from the global recession better than most Asia-Pacific economies.

China was Alberta's largest export market, excluding the US, in 2010. The largest export products from Alberta to China were canola oil, acyclic alcohol, unwrought nickel, canola seeds, and chemical woodpulp. Canola oil exports grew 70%, from $365.9 million in 2009 to $622.5 million in 2010. Acyclic alcohol exports to China grew 27% during the same time period. Exports of unwrought nickel, Alberta's third largest export to China, decreased from $296.0 million in 2009 to $249.3 million in 2010 at a rate of 16%. Exports of Alberta's canola seeds decreased 60%, from $497.1 million to $200.7 million. Chemical wood pulp exports rose 8.5% to $199.8 million in 2010.

Japan

Japan's economy grew 3.9% in 2010 and is expected to continue growing into 2011 at 1.4%, followed by 2.1% in 2012. Japan was Alberta's second largest export market in 2010, excluding the US. Alberta's exports to Japan decreased 7.1% to $1.5 billion in 2009.

Alberta's largest export to Japan in 2010 was canola seed. Exports of canola seed shrank 11% from $323.2 million in 2009 to $287.1 million. Coal was the second largest export from Alberta to Japan in 2010. The export of coal to Japan decreased 36%, from $339.9 million in 2009 to $ 218.8 million in 2010, largely due to low prices. Pork ranked as Alberta's third largest export to Japan at $201.7 million, up 3.2% from $195.4 million in 2009.

South Korea's economy grew by 6.1% in 2010. In 2011 and 2012, the South Korean economy is expected to grow by 4.5% and 4.2% respectively

South Korea

The Canada-South Korea FTA has been under negotiation since July 2005. To date there have been thirteen rounds of negotiations with the last occurring in March 2008. Access for Canadian agricultural exports, including beef and pork, is an important component of the negotiations for Alberta.

South Korea was the third largest export market for Alberta in the Asia-Pacific region. Exports grew 0.9% from $532.7 million to $537.7 million in 2010. The largest product Alberta exported to South Korea in 2010 was chemical woodpulp at $113.7 million, an increase of 22% from $93.2 million in 2009. Coal exports followed at $104.4 million. Wheat was Alberta's third largest export product to South Korea in 2010. Wheat exports grew 249%, from $20.3 million to $71.1 million.

Europe & CIS

The economies of Europe and the Commonwealth of Independent States grew in 2010 and are expected to continue growing in 2011 and 2012.

The EU consists of 27 member countries and is the largest economic grouping in Europe. Its GDP increased 1.8% in 2010. The EU is expected to continue growing at a rate of 1.8% in 2011 and 2.1% in 2012. Canada and the EU are currently negotiating a Comprehensive Economic and Trade Agreement (CETA), which has the potential to be the largest free trade agreement negotiation that Canada has undertaken since the NAFTA.

As a whole, the EU was Alberta's fourth largest export market; however, Alberta shipped only 1.5% of its total exports to the EU in 2010, at $1.2 billion, up 11% from $1.0 billion in 2009.

Nickel was the province's largest export to the EU and accounted for 34% of all EU exports in 2010. Nickel exports grew 100%, from $201.0 million in 2009 to $401.9 million. This significant increase can be attributed to both higher export prices and volumes of nickel.

Ranked second and third were machinery ($122.5 million) and cereals ($110.8 million). Exports of machinery declined 27% from 2009 to 2010 and accounted for 11% of total exports to the EU. Cereal exports, consisting of wheat primarily, were the third most significant export product, but were down 41% from the previous year. Energy products ranked as Alberta's fourth largest export to the EU at $97.6 million, up 320% from 2009 to 2010.

Overall, Alberta's top 20 exports to the EU rose 15% in value, while other Albertan exports to the EU shrank 3.0%. Energy represented the fastest growing export, but grew from a small base and skewed the results.

Historically, the Netherlands, the United Kingdom and Belgium have served as points of entry for Canadian goods into Europe and do not necessarily represent the final destination for these products.

Netherlands

The Netherlands was the largest destination for Alberta exports in the EU. Overall, the Netherlands' economy grew 1.7% in 2010 and is expected to grow by 1.5% in both 2011 and 2012.

Exports to the Netherlands grew 50% to $452.4 million from 2009 to 2010. Unwrought nickel remained the dominant export product from Alberta to the Netherlands during this time period. Exports rose 92% from $165.1 million to $316.9 million, the first increase for this product since 2007. Unwrought nickel accounted for 70% of exports to the country. The second largest export product to the Netherlands in 2010 was refined oil at $41.1 million, up from $5.4 million. Cobalt ranked third at $26.6 million and grew from $22.8 million in 2009 (up 17%).

United Kingdom

The real GDP of the United Kingdom (UK) rose 1.3% in 2010. Real GDP is expected to expand 1.7% in 2011 and 2.3% in 2012. The UK was the third largest destination for Alberta exports to the EU at $149.6 million, down 7.2% from 2009.

Wheat was Alberta's most significant export to the UK in 2010, despite a 34% decrease in export value to $28.8 million. Low prices for wheat and decreased shipments contributed to the export performance of this product. In 2010, Alberta exported $15.6 million worth of refined oil to the UK, up from no exports in 2009. Taps, cocks and valves ranked third at $11.1 million, down 49% from $21.6 million.

Italy

Italy's economy grew 1.3% in 2010 and is expected to grow at rates of 1.1% and 1.3% in 2010 and 2011 respectively.

Italy replaced the UK as Alberta's second largest EU trading partner in 2010. Alberta's exports to Italy totaled $156.8 million in 2010, a 0.9% decline from $158.2 million in 2009. Wheat was Alberta's largest export to Italy and was down 23%, from $81.3 million in 2009 to $62.4 million in 2010. Unwrought nickel exports to Italy increased 250% to $37.0 million during the same time period. Chemical woodpulp exports ranked third and totaled $16.4 million in 2010, an increase of 80% from the previous year.

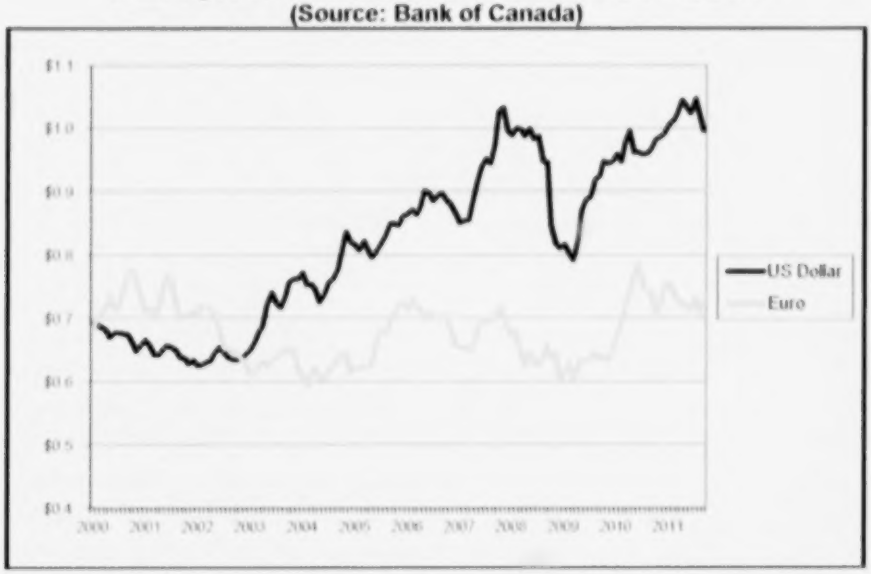
The IMF reported that Sub-Saharan African economies expanded 5.0% in 2010 (in real dollar terms). Sub-Saharan countries are expected to grow 5.5% and 5.9% in 2011 and 2012 respectively. South Africa's economy grew 2.8% in 2010 and is expected to grow 3.5% in 2011 and 3.8% in 2012. Sudan's economy grew by 5.1% in 2010 and the IMF forecasts that it will grow by 4.7% and 5.6% in 2011 and 2012. The IMF has noted that economies within the region have recovered to pre-financial crisis levels largely due to better prices for commodities.

Alberta's exports to Sub-Saharan Africa grew 0.9% from $220.4 million in 2009 to $222.5 million in 2010. The top three destinations for Alberta's goods, South Africa, Sudan, and Ghana, accounted for $126.1 million or 57% of exports to the entire region. Wheat was the largest export product to the region, and was worth $111.7 million, down 7.1% in 2010 from $120.2 million in 2009. Sulfur was Alberta's second largest export to the region at $22.3 million in 2010, an increase of 90%.

The Global Economy

Exchange Rates: Canadian Dollar to U.S. Dollar and Euro
(Source: Bank of Canada)



At the start of 2010 the Canadian dollar was worth close to $0.96 of a U.S. dollar. In January of 2011, the dollar was just above parity with the U.S. dollar. The dollar has remained above parity for most of 2011; however it slipped back under parity in September. Generally speaking, a high dollar puts Alberta's exports at a competitive disadvantage by making them more expensive internationally, thereby decreasing their demand. However, a higher dollar allows Alberta consumers to purchase more goods imported from the US.

The global economy grew 5.0% in 2010 and is expected to continue growing in 2011 and expand 4.4%. Real GDP is also expected to grow at a rate of 4.5% in 2012. The volume of world trade grew 12%, a much faster rate than world GDP. Trade volumes are expected to expand in 2011 in 2012 at rates of 7.4% and 6.9%.

The International Monetary Fund (IMF) stated that the global economy has recovered and that it does not believe there will be a "double-dip" recession as fiscal stimulus eases and consumer demand resumes driving the economy. However, recovery is occurring at varying rates with a general split between slow-growing advanced economies and fast growing developing economies.

Despite the overall positive outlook, some significant risks remain in the global economy. Overarching problems in financial markets, particularly in Europe, still exists and much of the recovery in developing economies is based on higher commodity prices. Fiscally, public debt remains high in most advanced economies. The U.S. faces some steep political challenges to address the risk stemming from public debt.
